

COUNTRY DANCING

FREE workshop

for ADULTS

Suitable for Teachers, Educators & Community Workers and those who just want to give it a try .. No experience required!

Wednesday 3 April

2 - 3.30pm

Country dancing is a fun, vibrant, colourful tradition.
Come alone or bring a friend. Easy to learn.
Great for exercise & well-being!

Workshop led by Mike Ruff - recently seen teaching country dancing on Back in Time for School on BBC2

This free workshop is part of the Museum's Tracing Traditions
project with the Museum of Cambridge & supported by TRADAMIS

To book email: info@farmlandmuseum.org.uk or call 01223 860988

Farmland Museum, Ely Road (A10),
Cambridgeshire CB25 9PQ
www.farmlandmuseum.org.uk

Tracing Traditions

Tradamis

MUSEUMS
ASSOCIATION
Esmée
Fairbairn
Collections
Fund

